

NICOLE ALIFANTE

Phone: 917-312-9930 E-Mail: nalifante@gmail.com

Objective

Founder and President of a nonprofit educating about systemic racism in America looking to work in a highly diverse, creative and collaborative capacity within an environment that promotes social justice.

Experience

CURE – The Coalition for Understanding Racism Through Education, President 2018 - Present

www.learnwithcure.com

- Plan community events and programs with prominent national thought leaders on the topics of social justice and anti- racism.
- Curate annual county funded event Five Towns, One Book with five county libraries, forty county partner organizations and three authors over three years including: Isabel Wilkerson, author of CASTE, Heather McGhee, author of The Sum of Us, Soyica Diggs Colbert, author of Radical aVision.
- Delegate and oversee treasury, social media and expanding resource base in order to connect the proper facilitators and programs to educate the community on: domestic workers rights, redlining, criminal justice reform and culturally responsive education.
- Partner with county organizations wanting to learn more about anti-racist movements.
- Collaborate with Westchester county public and private entities doing racial equity work.
- Build relationships in the community with individuals wanting to learn about anti-racist work and offered resources.

Co-Op Camp, *Performing Arts and Restorative Justice Educator

June - Aug. 2022

- Created and taught a Restorative Justice class, ACT - A Community Together, infusing performing arts for campers ages six through fifteen years of age.

Education

Restorative Justice Westchester, *Mentorship

2021-present

Fordham University at Lincoln Center

Theater, Honorary Theater Award

BA,